TESTIMONIAL.

COLUMBIA, S. C., January, 1891.

MR. F. H. HYATT, City.

DEAR SIR: We take pleasure in carrying out the principle of "honor where honor is due" in your case, in respect to the very satisfactory work done at our order in erecting a memorial of our lamented uncle, Capt. W. B. Stanley, which now stands in the churchyard of the First Presbyterian Church of this city. We were at first in doubt if we could secure here at home what we wanted, a memorial at once chaste and simple, and yet, in material and finish, the best that could be procured. You succeeded completely in furnishing exactly what we wished, and the marble tomb, which now marks the last resting place of our deceased relative, we feel to be a suitable memorial of one of his eminence and character.

Very respectfully yours,

J. C. & C. D. STANLEY.

REPORTS.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The cause of education is vitally connected with the welfare of the Church and the progress of society. To know the truth is a high privilege as well as a solemn duty devolved upon man by the voice of inspiration. For this purpose the Word of God was given to teach man wisdom and understanding. The glory of God shines in the starry heavens, in the fruits and flowers of earth, is seen in the life of the sparrow and the "young ravens when they cry." Jesus used the parables of nature, the strikikg interventions of Providence, as well as the revered Word of the written law, to illuminate and beautify the way of salvation. The Church can and should follow His infallible methods, and thus bring forth things new and old from the unfailing treasuries of God. We rejoice to report that this cause is still advancing in our midst. There has been at one or two points a falling off in the attendance of pupils, but this, we believe, is only temporary, and the cause of it well explained to your Board.

Wofford College

Up to date has enrolled 152 pupils for the current year. The Freshman Class numbers 68. Though some of these are not well prepared, the average preparation is above the usual. The health of the College is good, and all things promise a year of successful college work. In the Fitting School 68 have been enrolled.

Columbia Female College.

During the year Prof. Clinkscales has resigned his place to accept a Professorship in Clemson College. Prof. J. F. Brown was elected to fill the vacancy. He is doing good work and is admirably adapted to the place. One hundred and five pupils are now in attendance, of whom seventy-five are boarders. The debt on the college is now only $4,500, borrowed from the Belin fund. We are sadly in need of a larger chapel, more and larger recitation rooms and better society halls, but are not now prepared to suggest any plan for raising the necessary funds. If we expect to have permanent success, however, we must keep abreast of other institutions in the attractiveness as well as the comfort of our building and furniture. We trust the Conference will see the way clear in the near future to appoint an agent with authority to ask of our people $10,000 for this purpose. The college is doing better work than at any time since its reopening, and in its management everything is moving on quietly and smoothly.

Paine Institute

Is having increasing success in its school room work, some of its graduates having already attained solid distinction under circumstances well calculated to test their capacity and training. It is greatly in need of funds, and we recommend that the Conference co-operate with President Walker in raising money by private appeals to our membership.

Vanderbilt University

Has a larger number of students than ever before. There is a yearly increase in the number of post graduate students, and the effort of the University is to secure as many students of this kind as possible. The University does not intend to put itself in competition with our Church colleges, but asks these to become its feeders by sending their A. B. graduates to Vanderbilt for the further prosecution of their studies. The South Carolina Conference is well represented in the Biblical Department, there being now four young brethren pursuing their studies in the Seminary. These young men are well reported of by the Faculty. We commend this department especially to our people, and recommend that as many of our young preachers as can do so shall attend the Seminary.

We recommend that the Bishop be requested to make the following appointments: Rev. S. B. Jones, D. D., President Columbia Female College; Rev. J. M. Rogers, Professor Columbia Female College; Rev. S. Lander, D. D., President of Williamston Female College; Rev. A. Coke Smith, D. D., Professor Vanderbilt University; Rev. John C. Kilgo, Financial Agent of Wofford College; Rev. G. W. Walker, President Paine Institute.

We also offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That an assessment of four thousand dollars be distributed upon the various charges for the support of Wofford College.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

The day has passed when an apology should be made for the existence of the American Bible Society. Its beneficial influence is felt not only in our own country but in many foreign lands.

By translating the Bible into the various languages of the world it has been wonderfully helpful to the Church of Christ. In our earnest struggle to convert the heathen, we seldom stop to think that the majority of the translations of the Bible that we use were made not by our Church, but by expert scholars employed and paid by the Bible Society. If the society had done, and was doing, no other work but giving the various nations the Bible in their own tongues, this fact would obligate us to render it substantial aid. But the society is not only doing this work, but its agents and colporteurs are making every effort to place a Bible in the hands of every child in our land. The day does not lie in the far distance when this will be accomplished. It is only by giving this direct introduction of the Bible to the children that we can reasonably hope to frustrate the direful work of infidelity and atheism. Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That we heartily commend the work of the Bible Society, and that we as Pastors earnestly co-operate with the society in trying to place a Bible not only in every home, but also in the hands of every child.

Resolved, 2. That we will on the fourth Sunday in March, or some Sunday near that date, where an auxiliary society does not exist, present the work and needs of the society to our people, and take up a collection for its benefit and forward the same to Rev. T. H. Law, Spartanburg, S. C.

The following charges have made no report: Florence District, Cheraw

Circuit, Effingham and Scranton ; Marion District, Britton's Neck and Pee Dee Mission.

The Treasurer's report is as follows:

Received from Legal Conference	$ 35 00

Received from publisher of last year	41 37
Total	$ 565 73

The Committee nominate Revs. H. F. Chreitzberg and E. O. Watson to edit and publish the Minutes of this Conference, and recommend the publication of four thousand (4,000) copies. The Committee recommend that an assessment of six hundred dollars be made for the publication of the Minutes of next year.

Respectfully submitted.

C. D. MANN, Chairman.
J. E. MAHAFFEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, The South Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has been informed that a Bill is now pending in the Legislature of the State of South Carolina having as its object the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors within the State ; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That this Conference heartily approves the object of the said Bill, and hereby most respectfully and earnestly petition the Legislature to enact the same.

Resolved, 2. That copies of these resolutions, properly authenticated by the Bishop and Secretary, be transmitted to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Respectfully submitted.

W. L. WAIT, Chairman.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Conference has heard with great pleasure the report made by Dr. Barbee of the publishing interests of our Church. It is most gratifying to know that our Southern Methodism is alive to the great importance of this auxiliary in the work of evangelizing the world. Our House in Nashville is under excellent management, and is doing a great and good work in furnishing our preachers and people with a literature that is pure, ennobling and elevating —a light to illume the dark way of the world. We feel grateful for being joint owners of this storehouse of letters, and we desire to show our appreciation of its worth by the liberal use we make of its treasures.

We learn with pleasure that the Book Editor, Rev. W. P. Harrison, D. D., is engaged upon the preparation of a commentary of the Holy Scriptures, and from the prospectus we judge that it will be just the book our preachers have long been wishing for. The learned Doctor will give us the fruit of forty years' labor in six volumes, to be published soon, and we look forward with eager solicitude to be instructed by his learning and experience.

The Christian Advocate, published in Nashville, our connectional organ, is enjoying the full confidence of the Church. The paper is well edited, and merits a circulation still greater even than it now has.

The Sunday School Visitor is a model in all respects of a juvenile paper.

The mechanical execution, the illustrations, no less than its literary get up, are all of the very best. Its visits are sources of delight unalloyed to a million of little ones throughout our Southern land.

The Little People, Lesson Papers, Intermediate and Senior Quarterlies, are all admirably arranged for the different classes, and the Sunday School Magazine furnishes ample help to the teacher in the preparation of his lesson. This magazine has a number of able editors and contributors, and its pages contain a large body of scriptural exposition and of Methodist doctrine, presented in attractive and convenient form.

The Publishing House is steadily adding to its large catalogue, and our preachers now can readily supply themselves with books with our own orthodox imprimatur. The agents offer an attractive list of books for the Sunday School library, and there is no reason for sending to New York or Chicago for our Sunday school literature.

The Quarterly Review is one of the best publications of its kind, invaluable to the preacher, and worthy of the patronage of our people.

The Southern Christian Advocate is enjoying a fair circulation, but not as large as it should have. A good religious newspaper is a means of grace, and there is no good reason why our Advocate should not have a subscription list of 10,000.

Your Committee respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we recommend to our preachers to strive earnestly to introduce our own books and circulate our periodicals among all our people.

Resolved, That we more especially urge upon our preachers to try to increase the circulation of the Southern Christian Advocate, and if possible to introduce it into every Methodist family in the State.

H. BAER, Chairman.

REPORTS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Report No. 1.

The prime idea of the Sunday School is set forth in the great commission of our Lord to the Church, and it has all through the ages occupied the foremost place in the work of the Church. The concurrent testimony of ecclesiastical historians in every age, and in all parts of the Christian world, is, that faith and success have been always in proportion to the study of the Bible.

The modern Sunday School movement, with its teachers' unions and training agencies of various kinds, shows that the Church is giving closer and more reverent attention to its marching orders than it has at any previous period of its history.

One of the greatest factors in our Christian civilization, as it is developed in this great republic, is the Sunday School. With its million teachers and eight millions of pupils, there are untold possibilities in its latent and yet undeveloped forces. If the per diem allowed to teachers in the beginning of this movement were given now, it is estimated that an outlay of $43,000,000 would be required.

There is marked progress in the means and character of Biblical instruction. The best and freshest work of Biblical scholars is made available to teachers and pupils alike through the numerous and excellent periodicals and books devoted exclusively or incidentally to Sunday School work; and it is safe to say that no field is yielding a more gratifying return or greater harvest.

Sunday School work evidences its vitality by raising and discussing in its conventions questions which arise in the process of development. These questions are not narrow, uninteresting ones; they cover the widest range and are of the most vital importance, not only to the Church but also to the world.

The greatest and most pressing need of the Sunday School is good teaching. This the Church must supply. From her pale alone should teachers be taken, and the absence of personal religious experience should be regarded as the prime disqualifying factor in any case. But proper teaching implies trained or capable teachers, and the Church has no right to complain of inefficient teachers when it is possible to give them the needed training. This may be secured in various ways. Teachers' institutes, conventions and conferences might be used, and, from every point of view, a weekly teachers' meeting seems a necessity. The Epworth League might become a very valuable factor in securing this efficiency. The emphasis of our age is upon activity, and young and old in the Church must be employed or there is danger of loss. This idea is being used very successfully by very many of the Epworth Leagues now in operation, and we would recommend it to the attention of preachers and people.

The most of the profits of our Publishing House is made, we understand, upon our Sunday School literature. We think that a good proportion of this profit should be turned back into the same channel; that is to say, a large share of this profit should be set aside to pay for books for our children and young people. A double good would be done in this way—authorship would be encouraged, and our young people would be furnished with proper food.

Children's Day was observed by fifty-nine charges, the collections amounting to $429.13. Aid has been rendered as follows:

Old Saluda Factory	$ 15 00
Cumberland	50 00
Little Saluda Circuit	15 00
Reidville Circuit	25 00
Britton's Neck	40 00
Pee Dee Mission	15 00
Little Rock Circuit	15 00
Campobello Circuit	25 00
Scranton Circuit	30 00
Lancaster Circuit	10 00
Bethel and Spartan Mills	50 00
East Florence	75 00
Tradesville	20 00
Cokesbury Circuit	12 00
Total	$397 00

We submit the following financial exhibit:

Dr.		Cr.
To amount received from W. A. Rogers	$ 655 25	By sent to J. D. Barbee (1890)	$ 42 90
To amount received after his report	51 73	By amount paid needy Sunday Schools	397 00
To amount received from Children's Day Collections	429 03	By expenses	5 45
		By balance on hand	690 66
Total	$1,136 01	Total	$1,136 01

The Board offers the following resolutions:

1. That we observe closely the wise and ample provisions of the Discipline with reference to the organization of Sunday Schools; and that we recognize the importance of all Auxiliaries to successful Sunday School work.

2. That we urge Pastors to see that all Sunday Schools are organized as missionary societies, and that Children's Day be observed in all our charges.

3. That it is the sense of this Conference that Pastors and Superintendents ought to exercise the utmost care in the selection of teachers, and if possible have none that are not pious; and that every effort be made to supply opportunity for the training of teachers, wherever it can at all be done, by the formation of Teachers' Associations and weekly meetings.

4. That we respectfully urge upon those who have charge of our publishing interests the appropriation of a large share of the profits derived from the Sunday School publications to the supply of better and cheaper books for our children and young people.

5. That by a systematic and persistent effort we extend our Sunday Schools and other organizations for the young until we include all the children and young people of each charge; and that we supply them with the literature of the Church even where they cannot attend the exercises of the Sunday School.

6. That we appreciate the earnest efforts of our Sunday School Secretary, Dr. Cunnyngham, to give to the Church a literature worthy of a good cause.

E. T. HODGES, President.

Report No. 2.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at its late session, held in St. Louis, May, 1890, ordered the organization of young people's leagues, having for their object the promotion of piety and loyalty to our Church, education in Church history and their encouragement in works of grace and charity.

The preparation of suitable constitution and by-laws was entrusted to the General Sunday School Committee. The Committee has made these as simple and flexible as possible.

The name Epworth League was selected as being in every way appropriate to such an organization.

The Epworth League in the M. E. Church, South, is a little over eleven months old, and already its membership numbers over 50,000 and is rapidly growing.

A long felt want has been met, a niche in our Methodism hitherto unoccupied has been filled, by the organization of the Epworth League.

We offer the following resolutions for adoption:

1st. That we do our utmost to organize the Epworth League in each charge of the Conference, and to do so as soon as possible.

2d. That a District Executive Committee be appointed in each district of the Conference, consisting of the Presiding Elder and two persons appointed by him, one of whom may be a layman, to aid in organizing Leagues throughout the district, the purchase, change and sale of books, and to arrange for a District Epworth League meeting.

3d. That we recommend to the Epworth Leagues the consideration of the following plan as a solution of the "book problem":

Let the Leagues of each district bind themselves together and purchase one set of the books of the prescribed course of study, the number of copies of each book to be that of the largest paying membership, allowing a margin for growth of any League. Ship all the copies of one book to one League and all of the copies of another book to another League, and so on. At the end of each month let the Leagues change books according to a plan arranged by the District Executive Committee. Let this change take place each month till each League has had all the books, and then let them be sold and the money invested in the next year's course of study.

Respectfully submitted.

M. DARGAN.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Committee on District Conference Journals beg leave to submit the following report:

The Columbia District Journal is very neat in appearance, but shows great lack of carefulness in spelling, use of capital letters and in the construction and completion of sentences. In many instances small letters are used where capitals should be used. There is a lack of clearness in many parts of the record.

The Cokesbury District Journal. In this journal there are many errors in orthography, many oversights, blots and erasures. The construction of many of the sentences is crude and misleading. The punctuation exhibits much carelessness. There is much room for improvement in this journal.

The Charleston District Journal. The chirography of this journal is fair, and the reports are made in a lucid and condensed form. There are no blots or erasures to mar the records. The only criticism we have to make is the omission of the word "of" in the record of the second day's session, twelfth line.

The Chester District Journal is very neat and attractive in appearance. The roll, reports and resolutions are quite full and well arranged. The handwriting is very good and easily read. Attention is called to the following items needing correction: In first paragraph, page 5, the M. E. Church, South, should be written out in full, and "Rev. A. M. Chreitzberg, D. D.," should have been written instead of "Dr. A. M. Chreitzberg;" and in like manner of other names. Reports from the charges on the spiritual state of the Church and on finances are not given. There are some omissions and abbreviations.

The Florence District Journal is correctly, neatly and in all respects exceptionally well kept and deserves commendation. The only criticism is the use of the usual sign for "and" instead of writing the word.

The Greenville District Journal is neatly kept in every respect.

The Marion District Journal is so neat, legible and full as not to merit any adverse criticism.

The Sumter District Journal. We find this journal in fine condition, well kept in every respect.

The Spartanburg District Journal is neatly kept. The only criticism is that the sermon preached on the night of July 15th is mentioned as the beginning of the Conference, when the Conference was not organized until the next morning, July 16th.

The Orangeburg District Journal is very well kept, but some improvements could be made. Some words are abbreviated which should have been written in full. The names of the charges are not given in full, and in many instances the name of the brother reporting is not given. Some of the sentences are obscure.

Respectfully submitted.

J. E. CARLISLE, Chairman.
W. M. DUNCAN, Secretary.

An assessment of $4,400 has been made upon our Conference by the present Board, which your Board will ask the Joint Board of Finance to apportion to the Districts. Your Board has been hindered very much by the delay of some of the brethren in making their reports and in placing their applications ; and we earnestly request the brethren to hand in their reports and applications not later than the second day of the Conference session.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions met in the Methodist Church in Darlington, S. C., at 10:20 a. m., Tuesday, December 1, 1891, Rev. J. B. Traywick, President, in the chair. The following reports were made from the various fields :

Cumberland (Charleston.)—This charge continues to do a good and much needed work in the section of the city where it is located. The outlook in every way is quite as hopefnl as ever.

Columbia City Mission.—There have been no unusual developments in this charge the present year. It is a difficult field, needing care and patience in its management. The mission promises, however, better than at any time in the past.

New Brooklyn.—This mission was established in the city of Columbia at the last session of our Conference. There are two appointments, and twenty members have been gathered. A Sunday school has been carried on at one point, and at another our people have united with others in a union school. It is contemplated to build two churches in this work, and steps are now being taken to erect one of them. This is an inviting field. The Columbia canal has been finished, and soon a large factory population will be within our reach.

Blackstock.—The general outlook of this work is encouraging. It is also one of the new missions formed last year. A new church has been built—a nice structure—and we have a good congregation at this point. There is a good opening at another place. This mission work proper is carried on along with the service the pastor renders several already established churches. The results of the year, it may be frankly stated, are not up to our expectations, but such as to justify the wisdom of the Board in establishing the charge.

Parksville.—The report from this work states that the outlook has not been more encouraging for several years. There have been sixteen additions to the Church this year, though a net loss is reported. The payments of assessments, considerably in advance of the year before, are all in full.

Little Pee Dee.—The people here are poor. They need our ministry. They are much behind in appreciation of Christian liberality, but it is more a lack of education than anything else. The charge is doing fairly well.

Upper Edisto.—A good work has been done the present year. There is advance all along the line in this old missionary field. We are gathering, it seems, after many days.

Spartanburg City Mission.—There are two churches, one built the present year. The progress here is gratifying, and the possibilities for usefulness exceptionally good.

Aiken.—There has been a revival in this charge during the year and a goodly number of accessions. The outlook is brighter. These missions were all continued under the care of the Board.

West End Mission, in the city of Greenville, and Blue Ridge Mission were established. Quite a number of weak charges are also aided by the Board.

We trust the year's work has not been in vain. Indeed we doubt not that it has contributed its part to that grand, world-wide enterprise, the salvation of a lost world.

REPORT I.—BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

CONSTITUTION.

1. There shall be a Board of Colportage of the South Carolina Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, South, composed of six (6) clerical and an equal number of lay members elected quadrennially on nomination of the Presiding Elders.

2. The Board shall elect its own officers, make regulations for its own government, agreeably with the provisions of the Discipline, have power to declare and fill all vacancies in its own body, provided that an equal number of clerical and lay members shall be kept up.

3. The object of the Board shall be to circulate the Word of God, to put the literature of our Church in the hands and homes of our people, to distribute tracts, to obtain subscriptions to THE ADVOCATE and other periodicals of our Church, and generally to advance the spiritual welfare of our people.

4. The Board shall annually appoint an Executive Committee of three (3), who shall have charge of the business of the Board during the interim of the Annual Conference, and make a report of the work done to the Board at the annual meeting, a copy of which report, adopted by the Board, shall be submitted to the Annual Conference for information and be published in the Minutes of the Conference.

5. A General Colporteur shall be elected by the Annual Conference on nomination of the Board for a term of four (4) years; but in case of death, resignation or removal from office, the Executive Committee shall fill the vacancy, subject to the approval of the ensuing Annual Conference.

6. The General Colporteur shall be empowered to appoint and compensate sub agents or other assistants necessary to carry on the work, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.

7. The Executive Committee in consultation with the General Colporteur may devise and execute such plans as in its judgment may be necessary for accomplishing the objects in view.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that every member of the Conference should transact all business with the Publishing House through our General Colporteur.

W. A. BETTS, Chairman.
W. I. HERBERT, Secretary.

REPORT II.—BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

1. In view of the necessity of having a fund with which to operate the colportage business in our Conference, we hereby recommend the formation of a joint stock company with shares of ten dollars ($10) each, one-half to be paid in thirty days and the balance in ninety (90) days. The said stock shall bear interest at four per cent. (4 p. c.) per annum. At any time after the expiration of one year the principal and interest may be a legal tender for the settlement of accounts with the General Colporteur, and at any time after two years may be redeemed with cash at face value if the shareholder so desires. The General Colporteur shall issue certificates of stock to the shareholders, and be responsible for the redemption of the same.

We earnestly recommend that the members of the Conference, both lay and clerical, assist the General Colporteur in securing shares in their respective charges.

2. We nominate Rev. John C. Chandler as General Colporteur.

W. A. BETTS, Chairman.
W. I. HERBERT, Secretary.

REPORT III.—BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

Your Board in making its final report beg leave to say: Under specially embarrassing circumstances our General Colporteur has conducted a business during the past year amounting to about $5,300. With the necessary financial help that amount might have easily been doubled. Seven of our ten District Conferences have been visited by the General Colporteur and the claims of the work presented. As a Board we have reason to believe that in a few years the work will be self-sustaining, provided our preachers and laymen shall heartily co-operate with their patronage.

W. A. BETTS, Chairman.
W. I. HERBERT, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION OF SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Publishing Committee of THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE take pleasure in reporting the continued prosperity of our Conference organ. Last year the subscription list was larger than ever before. This year it is still larger, reaching nearly six thousand copies weekly. We are gratified so to report, and further to know that this circulation is above the average of Conference organs; but we join the Committee on Books and Periodicals in insisting that our ADVOCATE ought to be in every Methodist family, and that at the least ten thousand copies should be sent out every week in the year. Our paper is first class in every particular, in its editorial conduct and in its publication department, and merits enlarged patronage.

It is hardly necessary to repeat the statement, yearly made, that the editor, the Rev. W. D. Kirkland, D. D., has exhibited eminent ability in the management of our paper. He has continued to furnish excellent editorials, interesting communications and contributions, well chosen selections and condensed news. His work has measured up to the fine standard he gave us in former years.

Mr. Calvo, the publisher, has also continued to publish THE ADVOCATE in admirable style and with unvarying promptness. He has done his work well and with such good materials that we can easily claim to furnish the best paper in its make-up as well as in its matter.

The Committee believes that "THE ADVOCATE Day" plan, inaugurated by the editor, helped largely to secure the increased subscription list and recommends its continuance. It is advised that the first Sunday in June, and as many Sundays following in the month as may be necessary, be named as ADVOCATE Day, at which time special sermons be preached on the religious press and efforts to obtain subscribers be undertaken.

The Royalty Account for 1890 and 1891 has been audited and found correct.

RESOLUTIONS ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Since the Sabbath is God's Day, and, according to His commandment, must be kept holy, and since a proper observance of the day is necessary to the development of true moral character; and since it is the laboring man's right and is necessary to his welfare, culture, health and happiness:

Therefore be it resolved by the South Carolina Annual Conference M. E. Church, South, representing a membership of 70,000; a constituency of 300,000.

1. That we disapprove of the proposed opening of the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893 on Sunday; and in case it shall be opened, we request all Christian exhibitors and others to withdraw their support.

2. That these resolutions be published in our Conference paper, and a copy forwarded by our Secretary to the managers of the Fair.

3. That we look upon the running of Sunday trains, the carrying of the mails and the publishing of papers on the Sabbath as great evils, and we therefore will not patronize such things, and we heartily condemn such patronage on the part of our people as wrong.

J. WALTER DANIEL.

MEMOIRS.

REV. ROBERT C. OLIVER.

Robert C. Oliver was born in Edgefield County, S. C., in 1834, and died near Cherokee Springs, in Spartanburg County, August 2, 1891. His father died when he was but a boy. His godly mother deeply impressed his young heart with the precious truths of the religion of Jesus. So that, though he was greatly tempted to embrace unbelief as held by Universalists, these subtle suggestions of Satan found no permanent footing in his mind and heart. While quite a young man he was converted to God during his attendance at a Presbyterian meeting. He went to the church next day and exhorted sinners with earnestness and effect. He sought the communion of his mother's Church at once. In 1858, while teaching school in his native County, he felt called to preach the Gospel. He conferred not with flesh and blood, but, laying aside all previous plans for his life work, he arranged his temporal affairs and soon after went into the traveling ministry. For some years he went forth as a flame of fire. Hundreds were converted under his ministry. Under excessive fatigue he exhausted his nervous energy and fell into poor health and asked for a supernumerary relation to his Conference, which he sustained up to the time of his death. With him this relation meant to do all the work he could as health and opportunity opened the way. He was a tireless worker. He was one of those who would pray and sing with a poor penitent until low noon, or later if need be. He was true to the right as he saw it. He studied God's Word daily, and was much in prayer. He professed and preached the fundamental truths of entire sanctification. He was a sweet-spirited, joyous, all-the-year-round Christian. He was a man of affairs. Having married an elect lady of fortune, Miss Frances Thompson, of Charleston, S. C., he so wisely and prudently managed her estate that after leaving her entire estate to her at his death and dispensing many benefactions during his life, he bequeathed more than $50,000 to benevolent objects. Seven hundred and fifty dollars are to be paid out of his estate annually into the treasury of the Foreign Mission Society of the S. C. Conference. A conspicuous feature in his character was his warm affection for his brethren of the Conference. In all essentials he was one in thought and purpose with them. Speak evil of no man, was a Scripture binding on his conscience. He was never known to speak harshly of his brethren. He suffered much and long, but with patience—declared he was ready and went home to God.

R. D. SMART.

REV. ALLEN A. GILBERT

Was born at Walterboro, S. C., November 19, 1829. His father died when he was quite young, and the family being in straitened circumstances he was barred the privileges of the schools and was apprenticed for a term of years to a printer in Columbia, S. C. His apprenticeship trained him into the channel of journalism. He moved to Sumter, S. C., in 1849, and aided in founding the Black River Watchman, which soon absorbed its contemporary, the Sumter Banner, and assumed the name of Sumter Watchman. In the columns of this paper he served his generation well. Its columns were aqueducts to convey pure and healthful waters. His record as a journalist was among the purest and best. He served his County in the State Legislature with credit to himself and usefulness to the State. His opinions were patiently and conscientiously formed, and they were so close fitting he could not quickly change them as men change their overcoats. What he thought in heart he was in appearance. For these causes he was at one time grievously misunderstood. But the State had no truer son and humanity no truer brother than was he. Though exempted by law from military service, yet when he heard the battle cry of his State he laid down the editorial pen and grasped the sword in her defense. His record as a soldier was most honorable to him. He was among the last to quit the field when the sun of the Confederacy went down into a starless night. As a churchman he was foremost among his peers. He entered the service of God in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, early in life, and continued faithful until his last breath. For about a quarter of a century he was an efficient Sunday School Superintendent. As a Steward he was a prince among his fellows. From the time that layman were admitted into the Annual Conference until his death he was a member of that body, either as layman or minister. He was elected to all the District Conferences within his district, and was twice a delegate to the General Conference of his Church. He was licensed to preach late in life. From early manhood he felt perhaps that it was his duty to preach. Time and again these impressions came in the flush of his prosperity, but he allowed them to pass unsettled. He thought perhaps he could serve God as well in the spheres already referred to. But while coasting along these dangerous shores he became well nigh a wreck. Now the struggle became an agony to know the whole truth and surrender to the demand. The agony was prolonged. He kept in close communion with his Pastor and told him all. When the struggle was the fiercest, his Pastor left him one evening feeling that the issue was well nigh settled Our brother spent the first part of the night in prayer, the latter part in praise. He was early at the parsonage next morning to declare, with beaming face, that the great decision was made, and henceforth he would, by God's help, abide the issue. The clouds were forever gone, the haggard look and the drooping form were transformed, and from that day good cheer reigned in his heart. He was licensed to preach in 1879 ; served Wedgefield as a supply in 1880 ; joined the South Carolina Conference on trial at the close of 1880 ; sent to Wedgefield Circuit in 1881 ; to North Newberry Circuit, 1882, 1883 ; Hanging Rock, 1884, 1885 ; Greenville Circuit, 1886, 1887 ; Gaffney City Circuit, 1888, 1889, 1890 and 1891, where he ceased at once to labor and to live, August 25, 1891. Brother Gilbert in the latter part of his life had decided and strong convictions on the subject of entire sanctification, which state he professed to have attained, and which he maintained unwaveringly to the end. His last illness was distressing in the extreme, but " he endured as seeing Him who is invisible." His success as a minister vindicated his call to the ministry. It was no new service to him, only a new form of the same service that he had been accustomed to from his youth. None among us was more loved and loving and faithful than was our deceased brother. His body lies in the cemetery at Sumter, S. C. He rests from his labors and his works do follow him. A. J. STOKES.

REV. JOHN WESLEY MURRAY

Was born in what was then known as Charleston District, now Berkeley County, in the year 1831. In early manhood he entered the Citadel Academy of South Carolina, where he took a full course.

He was happily married to Miss Frances Davis ; a man and wife were never more devoted than these two. That devotion was witnessed in the last intelligible expression of the dying husband. As he lay in full view of death his thoughts went back to the companion of his youth, and he murmured : "What will my poor wife do ?"

Soon after he graduated he became teacher of a country school. It was amidst these duties and responsibilities that the Master called him to a wider field. The Holy Spirit came with convicting power and discovered the sinner to himself. One day being overwhelmed with sorrow, he left the school room and sought the solitudes of a neighboring grove to hold communion with an inviting Saviour. While there shut in with God, the silent message of peace was breathed into his soul, and a clear, sharp and glorious conversion ensued, which became that experience wrought out in the inner consciousness never to be a thing of doubt or uncertainty. He returned to the school room shouting the praise of God, to the great consternation of the anxiously waiting pupils.

When he returned home that afternoon his wife went forth to meet the happy comer, and exclaimed : "O, John, you are converted, for I see it in your face !"

From that day his heart was fixed. He was impressed that it was his duty to preach "Christ crucified and the resurrection." He committed himself to the work November, 1856, without reserve, and did the work assigned him without hesitation.

As a man he was strong and noble ; as a Christian he was consecrated and true, and as a preacher of the Gospel he was analytical, clear and forceful. Never commonplace, but sometimes rising to heights of eloquence. All through the thirty-five years of his ministry he was successful.

He was enthroned in the hearts of his wife and children, and of those who knew him best.

He left his home and the unsuspecting loved ones a few days ago to attend this session of the Annual Conference to make his last report. The year's work was done—well done, and he awaited another appointment. That appointment was soon made, for the "Great Bishop of Souls" called him higher, and appointed him the "rest that remaineth to the children of God." It was in the house of worship, while aiding in a missionary anniversary Wednesday evening, December 2d, 1891, that the summons came that bade him cease to work and to live. He was stricken with apoplexy and expired in one hour. "He died at his post." His body was accompanied to the railroad depot by the members of the Conference, and committed to the earth at Lamar, S. C., where he now peacefully sleeps.

R. HERBERT JONES.

REV. BASIL G. JONES

Was born July 30, 1814, died February 9, 1891. He was with us in the enjoyment of his accustomed health at the last session of our Conference. He returned to his home, in Aiken County, with the impress of the Conference session upon him, and full of hopes and plans for work under the circumscribed conditions of his superannuated relation to this body. Though infirm from age, and in poor health, he proposed to himself regular ministerial and pastoral work in his neighborhood, and at his neighborhood church. He was soon, however, stricken down with a fatal illness. It was the privilege of the writer to be with him, at his request, during the revealing days of approaching dissolution. To have been with him and to have ministered to him will always be remembered as at once a privilege and a blessing. He went down to the valley of the shadow of death without slavish fear, and yet without a particle of affectation either in word or tone. Death in its inevitable approach was to him simply a decease, a departure. Cf. Luke's account of the transfiguration with II Peter 1, 15. Brother Jones was a North Carolinian, and was born in Davie County. He was a man of great intellectual activity and power, and of no inconsiderable culture. He preached in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. Under a rather rugged exterior he had a tender and loving heart. He talked so sweetly during the latter weeks and days of his life about his love for his brethren and his love for the Church he served so long and faithfully. He joined the South Carolina Conference in 1853. He spent one year on a station, one year on a mission and thirty-one years on circuits. He was for four years a superannuated preacher. His record is among men and on high.

The Spring Session, 1892, will open on Monday, January 25, and close on Thursday, June 9. A pupil will be admitted at any time, and charged proportionally for the time she spends in the institution.

The rates of board and tuition, regular and extra, are unusually low, in comparison with those of similar institutions in our State.

During its twenty years' history, neither the fidelity of its teachers, the thoroughness of its scholarship, the genuineness of its work, nor the purity of its moral atmosphere has ever been brought in question. It respectfully claims, therefore, a fair share of the public patronage on the simple ground of actual merit.

Columbia Female College. Spring Session will open Feb. 1, 1892.

This Institution is the only one in the State which is owned and controlled by the South Carolina Conference.

Its Curriculum is as extended, and its grade of Scholarship as high, as that of any similar institution in the South.

Its Teachers are experienced and accomplished; the Building is elegant and well furnished, and the Domestic Arrangements are unsurpassed. With all these advantages, besides offering much lower rates than any other first-class institution similarly located in the State can afford, it appeals, with confidence, for patronage and support to the general public, but especially to every Methodist.
